RICHMOND POISON WARNING ISSUED

STRYCHNINE PLACED IN WEINERS

Richmond parents were warned last night by the Richmond police department to make a thorough search of their yards and streets in front of their homes for strychnine loaded weiners, promiscuously scattered about the Twenty-fourth street and Clinton avenue area late yesterday presumably by a dog poisoner.

The danger of small children picking up the sausages and eating them was pointed out by authorities last night after 3 dogs had died from the deadly poison in less than an hour.

Police are making a thorough investigation for the poisoner and the source of the poison.

One of the sausages picked up in the neighborhood by officials was analyzed by Dr. Rex Louck, city veterinarian and found to contain a large amount of commercial poison.

The sausage had been cut open and the poison inserted after which the weiner had been pressed together again.

The first case of poisoning was reported by Mike Fial, 2566 Downing avenue, who called Frank Meade, city poundmaster when his dog died from convulsions.

While Meade was at the Fish home Oscar Ditty, 728 Twenty-sixth street reported the death of his dog from the same cause.

As authorities were investigating the case a dog, the owner of which is unknown was found on the street in front of 2517 Clinton avenue.

All of the dogs according to Dr. Louck, had died from the strychnine poison which had been administered through the sausages in large doses.

The dance marathon being conducted in Joe Rossi's El Cerrito pavilion last night passed the 505th hour with four couples still dancing. All the dancers appear in the good condition, according to Rossi who does not expect any of them to withdraw before Tuesday.

Motion pictures of the dancers taken last Sunday will be shown Monday night. Rossi had originally planned to show the films tonight but was forced to postpone the showings two days.

He has arranged another "fun" night to amuse the Saturday night crowds. Professional talent will augment the dancers in presenting the entertainment.

SUGAR TARIFF COMPROMISED ADOPTED BY 9 TO 2 VOTE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—UP—Republican members of the Senate finance committee decided today to reduce the Hobbs tariff bill rates on world sugar from 3.00 to 2.75 cents a pound and on Cuban sugar from 2.40 to 2.20 cents. The present rates are 2.20 cents against the world and 1.76 against Cuba.

The House rates were rejected 7 to 4 and the new rates adopted 9 to 2. A proposal to limit Philippine sugar imports also was rejected.

The new rates represent a compromise between both tariff advocates supporting the House rates and low tariff forces fighting for retention of the schedules now in force. The committee's action is believed to conform with the desires of the White House.

Increase Made

Besides cutting down the basic sugar rates, the Republicans revised graduated schedules on refined sugar to provide for higher than present duties on most of the grades of the product.

The House bill rate of 7.50 cents a pound on maple sugar was increased to 9.00 cents.

The rate of sugar cane was increased to $3.00 a ton, an increase of $1.00 over the House bill and $2.00 over the present law.

The House bill rate of .03 cents a pound on blackstrap molasses was left unchanged.

Bill to Printer

With completion of work on the sugar schedules, Republican committee members sent their bill, lacking only administrative provisions, to the Government Printer.

The sugar rates decided upon today are expected to be storm centers when tariff debate starts on the floor of the Senate. They will probably receive strong Republican support, but meet with almost unanimous Democratic opposition. An effort may be made to revive the sliding scale proposal of Chairman Smoot of the Senate finance committee if controversy over the flat rates produces a deadlock.

GRAF PASSES HALF WAY MARK

(By United Press)

Pushing into the heart of unknown airways over Siberia, the German dirigible Graf Zeppelin steadily added to its great record of the world flight record Friday night as it moved toward Tokyo.

Keeping in constant communication with the Norddeich radio station in Germany, the Graf was able to communicate its position easily as it soared on over the Ob river valley, less than 400 miles from the Arctic circle.

Dr. Hugo Eckener reported that the ship had passed the eighteenth longitude Friday night (5 p. m. E. S. T.) and was nearing halfway mark on its 6600 mile flight to Tokyo, second stage of the flight around the world.

All was well aboard and weather conditions were satisfactory as the dirigible ploughed along at about 65 miles an hour. Dr. Eckener hopes to reach Tokyo sometime Monday, if rather unfavorable weather conditions reported along the Asiatic coast permits.

The dirigible had been in the air 47 hours at 9:35 p. m. E. S. T.

Guard Sees Meteor Fall Into Bay Here

An exclusive RECORD-HERALD story explaining the cause of a mysterious tremor felt in Richmond on the morning of Aug. 2, was further confirmed yesterday by a report made to Col. G. M. Alcazar, commandant of Alcatraz Island, by James Riley a guard at the disciplinary barracks that night.

Riley reported that on the night in question he saw three fiery objects fall in the bay. Two of the objects were on the south shore of the island, while the third, and largest, fell near the Richmond and San Francisco shores.

The meteor theory was first advanced by Charles Harrelson, night watchman at the California Cap works, who told a representative of the RECORD-HERALD that he had seen a "great flaming ball" fall into the bay between Richmond and San Francisco.

An earth shock was felt here on the morning of Aug. 2, rattling windows and dishes. Seismologists were at a loss to explain the cause of the shock until Harrelson made his report, which was further confirmed by Riley.

FABLES FOR THE FAIR

Don't Be a Prima Donna!

ONCE upon a time there was a beautiful, gifted young American girl who had a wonderful career opening at her feet. With a promise of money and glory and artistic success and popularity. And this same young woman, whose name was Mary Lewis and who was one of the Metropolitan's much-advertised American prima donnas. Suddenly and swiftly married another singer named Michael Franz Bohnen. Because—as both carefully and frequently and joyfully explained—they simply couldn't live without each other. So far as the public could see, it was a true marriage for love. And—again, so far as outsiders knew—there was everything to make it a success. Easy circumstances, applause for both, freedom and congeniality. Both were devoted to their work, as well as to each other.

And both declared that marriage would not be allowed to interfere with their careers.

Even their friends—and friends are frequently so pessimistic about brides and bridegrooms—referred to this particular marriage as an "ideal" union. Alas! Only two years later, Miss Lewis was bringing a suit for separate maintenance against her husband, in Los Angeles, where they have been living. She says that they have been separated for a month. But that her two years of married life have been "one continuous discord." It is revealed that their differences began a few days after the wedding. While they were on a liner bound for Europe and a honeymoon. Miss Lewis accuses her husband of striking her.

With a crowd of passengers nearby. And, as every woman will agree, it's bad enough for a husband to raise his hand to his wife, except in the way of kindness. But to do it before an eager-eyed public is simply unforgivable. Other charges allege that the husband dragged Mary Lewis about a Paris hotel room. After knocking her down and kicking her.

In Berlin, she charges, he pushed her with such force against a door that the panel was smashed. And think of the condition in which poor Mary must have been left! When the couple returned to New York, Miss Lewis alleges, Bohnen attempted to make her leap from a hotel window. And when she refused, she says, he tried to push her out.

It's a sad story, mates—every wedded mate will agree. But it's not the first of such stories that operate prima donnas have told the world. When somebody wrote, "Little birds in their nests agree," He couldn't possibly have included human songbirds. To continue the musical metaphor, there seems to be a little rift within the lute of many a prima donna's marriage. Which by and by will—and does—make the music mute. Just the other day one of the best-loved opera singers in Chicago obtained a divorce. And of the Metropolitan prima donnas, how many have cast off the shackles of matrimony?

We shall not mention names, because neither we nor any other outsider has a right to blame any individual prima donna for her matrimonial failures. In any specific case that occurs to you it may have been the man's fault—certainly, the lady usually gets the blame. Nevertheless, it must be granted that the typical prima donna rather boasts of her temperamental. And a shrewd woman who was the teacher and friend of prima donnas once told us that the proper definition of "temperamental" is simply "temper!"

It seems to us that the high mortality of opera marriages is a moral for the non-operative wife—yes, and husband!

If you want to make a success of wedlock, we'd advise, as one of the first "don'ts," this one:

MUSINGS ON MENUS

MODERNISTIC BY NANCY DORRIS

Iced or frosted coffee comes into its own in late summertime. The addition of cream and whipped cream places it among the food-drinks, easy to take in a season when table criticism is at a low ebb.

To capture the true coffee flavor the best beverage is made from the fresh, strong, hot coffee. It may seem extravagant to pour boiling coffee over chilled ice sufficient to chill it, but the result makes the waste seem as negligible.

The coffee, extra strong, should be made in the kitchenette and brought to the table on a tray with the tall glasses three-fourths full of chilled ice or cubes, a bowl of extra cream or ice cubes, a bowl of pitcher of coffee cream, a bowl of whipped cream and a ladle, coffee spoon, bowl of powdered sugar, sugar spoon.

ICED COFFEE (3)
One quart extra strong hot coffee.
Eighty of chilled ice or cubes.
Ten tablespoons coffee cream.

Five tablespoons whipped cream.

In some households the making of iced coffee is something of a rite. Since guests the arrival of the coffee tray.

Since the melting of the ice dilutes the hot coffee, the extract must be very, very strong. Otherwise a very weak beverage instead of a rich, delicious drink will result. If the breakfast coffee allowance is one tablespoon for each cup and one for the pot, double the coffee for the iced drink.

Individual tastes in frosted coffee vary so widely that only a general idea can be given here. Four hot coffee glasses and for those who like cream, add a tablespoon of coffee cream. The amount of sugar desired—powdered dissolves so quickly it is ideal for iced drinks—and top with a spoon of whipped cream.

Some tastes prefer the coffee without sugar. Others with the sugar added before the coffee has cooled, then the cream and last the whipped cream.

Gossips Hint Bay State May Have a Coolidge vs. Coolidge Senatorial Campaign Next Year

WASHINGTON, D. C. Some months ago this column reported the movement started by the venerable Boston Transcript to draft Calvin Coolidge for the Republican Senatorial nomination in Massachusetts next year. The suggestion was that Senator Frederick H. Gillett, former Speaker of the House, would be defeated if renominated and that the awesome spectacle thus would be presented of the old Bay State having two Democrats in the Senate.

The Coolidge movement was held to have been inspired by former Senator William Morgan Butler, former Chairman of the Republican National Committee and distinguished as the Coolidge political mentor, guide and co-counsel. The former President said nothing to indicate he contemplated a return to public life, but Senator Gillett, after thirty-nine years in Legislatures, State and national, is described as nearly heartbroken by the Republican attacks on him. There are rumors now that we may have a Coolidge in the Senate after all. He would be Marcus A. Coolidge, not Calvin; a Democrat, not a Republican. The gossip is that Senator David I. Walsh, acknowledged Democratic leader in Massachusetts, favors the nomination of Marcus A. Coolidge, former Mayor of Fitchburg and present Treasurer of the Democratic State Committee. John F. Fitzgerald, former Mayor of Boston, and well known as "Honey Fitz" for his singing of "Sweet Adeline," was regarded as the likely choice of the Democrats but is represented now as being more desirous of running for Governor.

What would voters in South Boston do if the ballot next year bore the names of Coolidge versus Coolidge? Moreover, what would the former Mayor of Northampton and the former Mayor of Fitchburg think about such a set-up?

The arrest of W. Clark Noble, a sculptor, his wife and three others for alleged conspiracy to blackmail Capt. Clarence Crittenden Calhoun and his wife, socially prominent in the national capital, serves to recall one of the exciting moments of the Prince of Wales when he visited Washington a few years ago.

Mrs. Calhoun is head of the Woman's Universal Alliance, which has undertaken to erect a memorial of some sort here. Capt. Calhoun is a Kentuckian with a lot of ancient and modern ground. Their names appear frequently in the social news.

Mrs. Calhoun had a pretty debutante daughter at the time of the royal visit and the Prince danced with her more than with any other girl attending the parties given in his honor when his days' official chores were done. He accepted an invitation to visit the Calhoun home.

His hosts thought it would be a great idea to emphasize blood kinship of Mrs. Calhoun with Pocahontas. They rigged themselves out in Indian costumes, feathers and war paint, and entered the princely presence brandishing tomahawks and war-whooping. The story always has been that H. R. H. was scared out of his full dress suit.

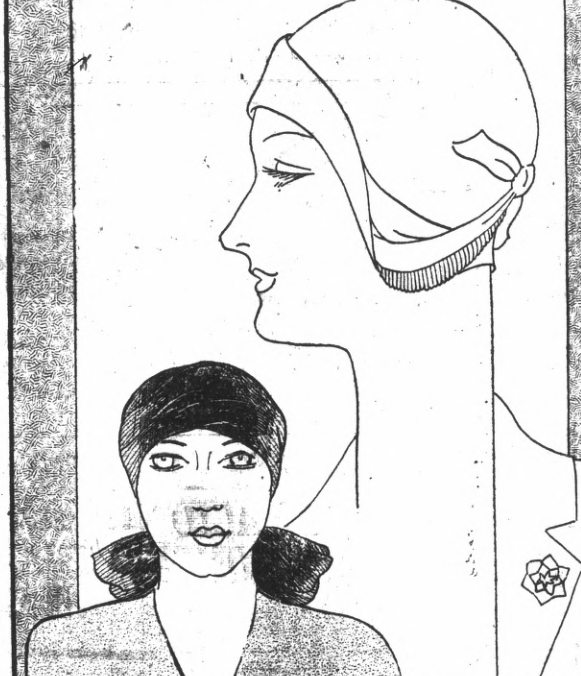

There is every reason to believe the President and the Navy Department will defer the scrapping or sale of the famous old battleship Olympia until Congress shall have had a chance to decide whether the vessel be preserved, as a memorial.

Representative Cochran of Missouri has a bill pending in the House to bring the Olympia from Philadelphia and moor her at the end of Hains Point, the terminus of the Potomac Speedway Park. The idea would be to preserve Dewey's flagship in the battle of Manila Bay would enable the thousands of school children who visit Washington annually to see the old ship and also have a chance to inspect the vessel. Mr. Cochran contends that there are many thousands of American children who never have seen a battleship, and that although obsolete for military purposes, the Olympia still

A Word to Wise Parents

By Alice Judson Peale

HOME TRAINING SHOWS

THE children were standing before the bulletin board where the daily schedule of camp chores, made out by a committee of the children, was posted.

"What's my job? Sweeping the dining room? O. K. Where's the broom?" And Nancy was off.

Elsie, who had stood beside her at the bulletin board until she registered the painful news that it was her job to sweep the play room. "Good heavens!" she whined. "I just hate to sweep. I don't see why I have to. I don't know how, anyway. I'm not a servant, how should I know? I'm not going to do it," and she flopped into the nearest chair.

Twenty minutes later Nancy was on her way down the hill to the stable to saddle her horse and start out for a long morning ride down Green Bug Lane.

"Nancy certainly is lucky," wailed Elsie. "Look at her, there she goes off for a good time and I have to work!"

Wearily she rose and looked for her broom, irritation and peevishness written large in every look and gesture. She swept and swept badly. Her councillor showed her just how to do it, did part for her and left her to the overwhelming task of sweeping a room measuring 16 by 14 feet.

Home training shows, Nancy and Elsie are simply the products of their respective homes. Nancy will get on well wherever she goes, whereas Elsie will discover only a world which conspires against her comfort and pleasure.

If children are trained properly during their early years they cheerfully assume their responsibilities. They waste no time complaining. They do their work and are ready for play. How are you training your child?

STEAMING SILK GARMENTS

SILK is more or less elastic, so many silk garments excepting those with pleats may be steamed instead of pressed and this is especially convenient for the vacationist.

The process is simple and no task at all. Just hang the garment in the bathroom, turn on the hot water in the tub and close the door and windows to retain the steam.

The garment should be on a hanger. If you have none, roll up a newspaper or magazine and tie it in the middle, leaving a loop for hanging. Then suspend garment directly over the tub, making sure it hangs firmly and does not touch the wall.

Steaming is not only less labor than pressing, but it is really beneficial to the silk as it adds moisture, which is so necessary to the life of the silk, and which pressing is quite apt to destroy.

The Farmer's Advice

By Alfalfa Smith

JUST because divorce is getting fashionable is no reason why it is right, or the best thing to do.

A wife is given a man to TEST his strength of character and if he doesn't meet the test he will have to meet it somewhere, sometime, somehow and don't you forget it!

The thing to do is to be a success in SPITE of your wife and not lie down on the job.

The most terrible thing in human experience is to BE DEFEATED.

The Silhouette In Gloves

CHANGE the classic slip-on glove has enjoyed its day. Worth is promoting a new type with a small cuff which superbly fits the lower part of the arm and is corded and stitched four or five times around the edge. A half inch band likewise stitched fastens the glove snugly about the wrist and is held firmly by two gold buttons on the back of the hand. Can such a tricky glove ever replace the easily donned slip-on?

Velvet Trims Chiffon

NEWER than the all-chiffon dancing frock is one which bridges the late summer and the early fall seasons by combining two vastly different fabrics, chiffon and velvet. Touches of velvet are very handsome on this filmy material especially when used in panel form to hold shirrings at the waistline and to emphasize the new length in the silhouette. A parent velvet adds its glistening note in self color to chiffon frocks in white, black, light blue and several shades of pink.

An All-Occasion Fur

Accordingly as it is detailed as to shirring, flared lines and the like, lapin becomes a coat of formal or informal mien for early season wear. This fur is shown in very interesting models including the short coat for wear with tweed frocks, the full length coat designed on swager lines or of the more dressy type, and also in the short evening wrap.

The Seashell Motif

SUZANNE TALBOT has resorted to the seashell for evening necklaces, the shells small and white. These she also uses for belts, flowers and dress trimmings.

A late summer silk ensemble of flat crepe and georgette carries out the seashell motif in its lines of tucking which give the coat a smart appearance. All edges are scalloped as is also the waist length cape collar which falls from the shoulders in back and is joined to the scalloped lapels.

Georgettes for Autumn

ONE of the most convenient and at all times wearable fabrics is georgette—excellent in the warmth of summer, just right on slightly cool days, and very comfortable when a coat must be donned. Several very smart new models are shown in the shops in navy blue or black, embodying the more serious of the details manifest in current dress.

One may be trimly tailored in georgette with a collar edged by a crisp line of tulle, or correspond to the pleasing encircling the skirt, or select a model having a flattering draped cowl neckline.

Georgette is a fabric that is sure to be widely adopted as it is new and charming. The woman with a short neck should avoid it. It tends to shorten her neck front and entirely as possible.

"IDLE RICH" HAS EXCEPTIONAL CAST

Robert Ober and Paul Kruger didn't have to learn a single line for their talkie roles in "The Idle Rich," William de Mille's all-talking picture which opens tomorrow at the Fox-California theater as a 100 per cent. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture feature.

The reason is because both of them played the same parts on the stage for four years and the memories remained fresh in their memories even though they had enacted other roles since that time. "The Idle Rich" was taken from "White Collars," the Edith Ellis play, one of the comedy smash hits of theatrical history.

William de Mille directed the picture version, with Conrad Nagel, Bessie Love and Leila Hyams in the leading roles. Edith Chapman and James O'Neill, famous character actors who have appeared in countless stage and screen successes, are included in the supporting cast. Kenneth Gibson also has a prominent role.

The cast is in every way an exceptional one and is also one of the smallest ones ever used in a feature production, using but two extras.

Bessie Love established herself as a star of the talking screen through her marvelous performance in "The Broadway Melody." Leila Hyams scored her success in the Broadway woman comedy "The House of Mirth," one of the early talking films. In fact, it was due to her work in that production and the unusual quality of her voice that she received her contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Conrad Nagel is ranked as a veteran of the talking screen. He has appeared in more diverse pictures than any other Hollywood star. So much in demand for his services that even while he was busy on the William de Mille film he was taking direction from brother Cecil B. de Mille on another set on the M-G-M sound stage where "Dynamite" was in production.

School nurse says all girls should know this

"TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene an experienced district nurse said: 'One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and good habits should be encouraged, but when necessary there is no harm in taking a nap, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when naps should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping.'"

BUSTER WEARS 'GLAD RAGS' IN FILM

"Spite Marriage," Buster Keaton's latest hilarious starring vehicle, is at the Fox-California theater with Buster in his first "dressed up" role. He doesn't wear the usual ragged costumes of the comedian, but dresses in height of fashion, for he is a clothes presser who borrows his patron's clothes in which to pose as a millionaire.

The new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, a sound synchronized film, was directed by Edward Sedgwick. It is a hilarious romance of backstage theatrical life with an adventure on a yacht for thrills. Dorothy Sebastian plays the heroine, and the cast includes Leila Hyams, Edward Earle, William Brouette, Jack Byron and others of note.

"The story is an original by Lew Lipton, scenarized by Ernest S. Pagno.

Indians Score Volstead Act

PENDER, Neb.—Prohibition has placed the whites in the same class as Indians, according to an Indian juror during a trial of a white man on a charge of selling whiskey to an Indian.

"We Indians have experienced prohibition for years. You whites have had it since 1918. Now the Indians and whites are in the same class, all going down alleys from bootleggers. You don't have to feel sorry for the Indians any more," the Indian juror said.

The jury returned a verdict of acquittal for the white man.

Lord Erne Lauded For Horsemanship

ON WITH THE SHOW

Copyright 1929, Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.
"ON WITH THE SHOW," is the first 100% natural color, Vitaphone picture. It is a Warner Bros. picturization of this novel.

Willie Durant is financing Nita French, an actress, in a musical show, but suddenly refuses to put up more money. Jerry Connolly, the manager, accuses Durant of being unsuccessful. Durant is a girl, and Jerry takes a gun from her and tries to shoot her. Durant is a girl, and Jerry takes a gun from her and tries to shoot her.

"You stay here," she warned, frightened now lest Durant should tell the detective of his suspicion concerning a boy part in the box-office robbery, little knowing that Joe had already questioned him.

But Jimmy's face was fully roused. "I'll bust his dirty neck for him!" he said. "I'll bust him!" He tried to pull away from Kitty but the girl clung tenaciously.

"Please, Jimmy, you don't know what you're doing," she argued. Their faces were very close together and Jimmy began to yield.

Jimmy Suspected the Worst to the girl's persuasions, conscious of her nearness. Suddenly he drew back, smiling suspiciously.

"Well, I'll be—Kitty!" he gasped. "Your breath! You've been drinking!"

"Now, calm down, I haven't been doing anything," Kitty tried to soothe him. "Nothing's happened."

"You've been—" The boy's voice faltered as though he resented having to speak the word in connection with the girl he loved. "You've had a drink with that fat tire," he began again. "Oh, no! Nothing's wrong—nothing's happened!" His tone held bitterness and heart-break.

Kitty reached her arm about his neck, trying to embrace him, but he pushed her away. To think that Kitty should play such a part. To think that she would fall for such a mug as Durant. Jimmy couldn't believe it, and yet he had seen her with the man and certainly in a compromising position. And her breath was noticeably strong with the odor of Scotch whisky.

"Please, Jimmy," Kitty was begging, tears in her eyes. "Let me explain. He and I were just—"

"Just in here alone with the door closed—wait! for a street car," Jimmy's words might have sounded light and joking, but there was a real sorrow and depth of misery behind them, and Kitty realized it. He turned away and started to leave the room.

She ran after him. "Oh, Jimmy, please," she called, again catching his arm and trying to turn him around. She guessed what he must be thinking, but so far as she knew he didn't realize the true situation. He didn't know that she was being accused of the theft and that she had been trying to save him. It was a hard matter to explain, and it would be even harder to convince Jimmy of the exact nature of the matter.

From the stage came the sound of music as Jimmy tried to shake off Kitty and make his way across behind the back drop. But Kitty heard nothing. She was growing almost frantic in her desire to make the boy understand what had happened.

"I tell you, Jimmy everything's all right. You must listen to me. I had to do what I did, but please believe me. I wasn't allowing Durant to kiss me. I swear I wasn't. Jimmy, he tried to chase me around the room and I even threw a vase at him."

"Well, you must of led him on if he got close enough to grab you the way I saw him grabbing," Jimmy asserted coldly.

GENEVA DRIVERS TEST GIVES S. F. REPORTER SOME THRILLS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—UP—Californians who complain of the stringent examinations required of all automobile drivers this month, in connection with reissuance of permits, may be consoled by the tale brought back from Geneva by Albert Tromonti, San Francisco newspaperman.

"With the exception of members of the League of Nations, which are exempt from such requirements, all other drivers, American included, must pass a test the like of which even the California legislature could not evolve," Tromonti told the United Press.

"The law in Geneva does not permit you at any time previous to your examination to ride in your car on self-schooled runs, unless you are accompanied by a licensed chauffeur.

"The chauffeurs are, of course, fully aware of this fact, and the visiting American is required to part with a Liberty bond or two to avail himself of such services. "After trying to do all the things my chauffeur-instructor ordered me to do in mid-street and in broad daylight, I decided in disgust to take by my own examination the very next morning, to the bewilderment of my tutor, who felt a perfectly good tip slip through his fingers.

"Promptly at 8 a. m. the next day, we solemnly lined up in front of an out of town police station our respective chauffeurs waiting until the inspector was through with his coffee and sweet rolls before they were dismissed.

"Here comes the chief, escorted by a model Ford roadster. He is followed by a Ford, a Buick, a Chrysler, a Packard, a Studebaker and a S. O. S. roadster to the testing grounds.

"We line up again to listen to a lecture on the law. They tell us that if we miss on any one of the tests, it will cost us three dollars and we will have to come again and again until we pass it. Very cheerful news, that.

"We are six all told, this morning. I was the only representative of the U. S. Of our six machines, three were of French make, two were American, and the other an Italian truck.

"For the first test, we go forward, single file, along the road to a right hand turn where a steep down hill grade begins; we must take the turn and stop with front bumpers one inch from a post held by an officer.

"Now we're on the grade. Another officer stands three yards back of us, without touching a post ahead, we must back the car to within the required inch of the post held by the officer at the rear. We simply cannot afford to mar the paint job on either of these sacred police posts; it would cost three dollars and a come-back.

"We repeat the maneuver both ways; then reaching level ground, make a perfect about-face in a narrow space and line up facing the way we entered.

PANTAGES TO FACE GIRL CHARGES

been committed and that there is sufficient cause to believe the delinquency thereof.

Judge Wilson pointed out that this having been a preliminary hearing he was not called upon or permitted to pass upon the guilt or innocence at this time and stressed that nothing in his statement should be construed as a final decision.

The court's ruling was made shortly after a session in the Pantages theater building where in a film was in process, a witness testified regarding Miss Pringle's flight from the theater man's conference room.

Actor Called Questions and answers were spoken softly as W. Hale a Hollywood actor, was cross examined by the defense. He related the events which took place after the 17 year old girl ran screaming from Pantages' secluded conference room.

He was the last witness called by the state before it rested its case. Nick Dunave, promoter of the act in which Miss Pringle danced, was the first witness put on the stand by the defense.

Hale told how he had been viewing film in the theater last Friday when, in his balcony seat, he heard a girl's piercing scream in the corridor outside a nearby exit.

Girl Fainted He seated himself as he was out of that night, under the direction of defense counsel, led the court party through the exit, down one flight of stairs and up another to the midway landing where he testified the girl fell into his arms.

"It was here that Miss Pringle came running down the steps and fell into my arms," he testified dramatically. "She cried, 'Save me, save me!'

Before the move to the theater from the court room, Hale testified that when Miss Pringle fell into his arms she "kinda fainted."

Saw Pantages "I asked her what was wrong, but she didn't answer me, and kept on screaming and hysterical. Then she broke away and ran down to the street."

Hale testified that he continued up the stairs until he reached the conference room and saw a man inside.

"I saw a door partly open and inside I saw a man. The left side was all I could see through the door. I saw him pulling his suspenders off and putting them on, then the door went slam."

He said that he then went from the conference room to Pantages' private office and that Pantages and other men passed him and entered the latter's office.

When Dunave took the stand, the defense renewed its efforts to tear down Miss Pringle's moral character. Among the questions asked Dunave was one as to whether or not he had ever taken Miss Pringle to the Continental hotel here.

Defense Scored Dunave replied that Miss Pringle had been with him when he drove Mickey O'Neill, a stage booking agent there, and that Miss Pringle had used a telephone there to inform her mother's house for the night.

Earlier in the day, Fred Wise, a screen writer was on the stand for completion of his cross examination of what he saw when he was attracted by the girl's screams.

Ant Defeats Earwig In Deadly Combat

PORTLAND, Aug. 16.—UP—An ant and an earwig dueling to the death here recently.

The ant's armor was proof for many minutes against the fangs of his adversary. The earwig, too, with its greater size and longer reach, was unhurt until after both fighters began to tire, the black ant slipped under his opponent's guard and inflicted a fatal wound with his mandibles.

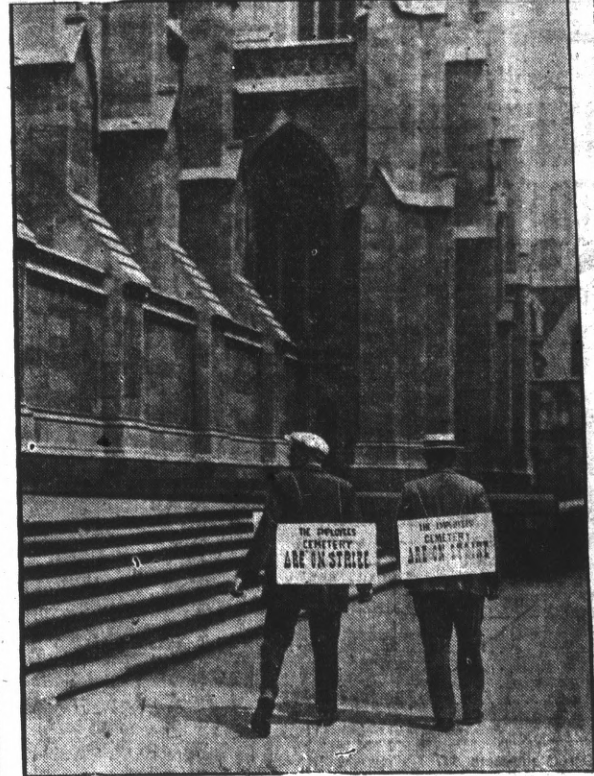

The earwig was carried in two sections and loaded away to an anthill lair.

Whether the duel was part of an intensive earwig extermination campaign carried on by the ants, or merely the result of a private feud between the two combatants was a matter of conjecture.

MAN SETS NEW CRIME RECORD

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 16.—UP—George Raymond, 61, arraigned in the municipal court here for possession of an opium pipe, faces his 27th clash with the law.

Raymond is what one might call a titled criminal. He has used 14 different aliases in his long and varied career.

In 47 years, police say, he has piled up a tremendous record, largely confining his activities to the Pacific coast. He has been in every jail in every large city from Seattle to San Diego.

He says, himself, that he is a pioneer resident of some of the coast's oldest jails, and declares he has been officially received by authorities in most of the best police stations of the country.

First arrested in San Francisco in 1892, Raymond gave his entire attention to the Pacific coast until 1895, when he was arrested in Cincinnati, Columbus, and Holyoke, Massachusetts.

In 1897 he was arrested in Philadelphia, and Kansas City. From 1905 to 1916 he was arrested seven times in various Pacific coast cities, and once in New York, and since 1914 has put up at police hotels in Seattle, Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, and other western cities.

He has been arrested as a pickpocket, petty thief, vagrant, bootlegger, forger, swindler, for grand larceny, narcotic possession, and liquor possession.

Raymond expects to be the guest of Los Angeles until the opium pipe case is settled.

MINER SHOT IN FIGHT WITH POSSE

MOSCOW, Idaho, Aug. 16.—UP—A pitched battle between a sheriff's posse and two prospectors barricaded in a tiny cabin at here, today resulted in possible fatal injuries to one and the capture of his pal.

Keoments Barkas was shot through the abdomen when he stepped from the cabin for a moment. He was operated on to-night and is believed near death.

Sam George, defied a rifle attack for hours in his cabin but was captured after he slipped from the shack and endeavored to escape into heavy timber. He offered no resistance when surrounded.

George and Barkas were said to have driven strangers away from their prospect hole with guns. Sheriff Wilson started for their mountain retreat Thursday and met George on the road. The prospector was armed but Wilson persuaded him to drop his gun.

As Wilson placed handcuffs on his prisoner, Barkas leveled a rifle from the bushes nearby and ordered the sheriff away. Wilson complied but told the men to surrender at 9 a. m. today.

When they failed to appear, the sheriff and 12 deputies went to the prospect hole and were met with a barrage of bullets from the cabin.

The siege started and more than 50 shots were fired. Barkas was shot when he left the cabin for a moment while Barkas remained defiant until late afternoon.

One half a game in back of Hollywood were Los Angeles and the Missions, tied because the Angels beat the Missions, 8 to 2.

There was only one close game in the circuit today and in it Sacramento defeated Oakland, 10 to 9. The Oaks made six runs in the first of the eighth but the Senators tied the count with four in the last half and won with one tally in the ninth.

The Seals made six runs in the first two innings and were leading, 13 to 3, at the end of the sixth. Los Angeles started out with six runs in the first three innings and allowed the Missions only seven hits in the entire game.

Portland trounced Seattle, 11 to 2.

High Gridders Preparing For First Contest

Ivan W. Hill, Richmond high football coach, is working strenuously toward putting a first-class team on the field for the Oakland Tech game on Aug. 30.

For the last two days, the squad has been practicing passing and other light work, and today Hill started showing the boys his favorite plays.

He said the squad is forming into a varsity team to measure up to last year's eleven.

Eleven men from last year's varsity have turned out for practice.

There are also 20 men from the junior highs who have yet to "show their stuff" and who may be valuable material.

Warner Has Hard Schedule This Season

PALO ALTO, Aug. 16.—UP.—Confronted by a formidable lineup, scheduled Coach Glenn "Pop" Warner of Stanford is whipping his Cardinal gridders into shape.

The Red Shirts have lost 12 of last year's lettermen by graduation and the veteran coach is directing his attention toward filling of vacancies.

Of the 13 lettermen eligible to play this season, only five saw regular service last year. They are Walt Heinicke, center; Corwin Artman, tackle; Captain "Mush" Muller and John Preston ends, and Herb Fleischacker, the quarter.

Post Lost
The men who stepped out of college football with the acceptance of diplomas were Don Robbesky and Seraphim Post, guards; Roland Seilman, tackle; Frank Wilton and Bob Sims, halfbacks; "Biff" Hoffman, fullback; Bob Vermilya and Alex Cook centers; Dodge Davidson, Dick Worden, "Spud" Harsten, ends, and Spud Lewis, quarter and halfback.

It is expected that Warner will have his greatest difficulty in filling the guard position left vacant by the departure of Post and Robbesky, two splendid fighting players.

With Walt Heinicke at center, Warner will have one of the best men in the country. But as yet no capable understudy has made an appearance. Heinicke is "tough" and he may go through the entire season uninjured, but Warner wants a capable substitute.

Lost One
The Cardinals went through a heavy schedule last season and were defeated but once—at the hands of the University of Southern California, by a score of 10 to 0.

Six of this season's games will be with conference opponents—the major clashes being with University of Southern California, and the Cardinal's traditional rivals, California.

The Red Shirts will climax their season: December 28, when they play host to the United States Military academy in what may be the last intersectional class of the year.

Schedule
The schedule:
Sept. 21, West Coast army at Stanford.
Sept. 28, Olympic club at Stanford.

October 5, Oregon at Stanford.
Oct. 12, U. C. L. A. at Los Angeles.
Oct. 19, Oregon State at Stanford.
Oct. 26, U. S. C. at Stanford.
Nov. 2, Cal. Tech. at Stanford.
Nov. 9, Washington at Seattle.
Nov. 16, Santa Clara at Stanford.
Nov. 23, California at Stanford.
Dec. 28, West Point at Stanford.

FONG WAN HERBS SPECIAL-LY COMPOUNDED RELIEVE MANY AILMENTS AT ONCE.

Richmond, Cal.
June 20, 1928.
For years I had terrible pains in my right side. I also had liver and gall bladder trouble, which caused the pain to run clear around my back. All the healers whom I consulted said that I could not be helped unless an operation was performed. Being aware that many of my friends had been greatly benefited by the Fong Wan herbs, I began to take them. I drank the tea conscientiously for seven weeks, at the end of which time I felt that my suffer was complete. Now I have the added satisfaction of knowing that it is also permanent for a year has elapsed and I am still free from pain and feel splendid.

ROTARY HEARS TALK ON LAWS

Hugh Henry Brown, a member of the State Bar association, was the speaker at the session of the Richmond Rotary club yesterday in the Hotel Carquinez.

Brown told what the court procedure section of the Commonwealth club of San Francisco has accomplished and what it plans to do in regard to bringing the courts of California up to the 1929 standards.

Brown declared that the court procedure rules in effect a few years ago when the Commonwealth club began a study of other states and other nations conditions, were a relic of the gold rush days and were as efficient as the transportation system in California 75 years ago.

The legislature adopted two of the plans offered by the Commonwealth club, Brown said. Dr. U. S. Abbott was chairman of the day. Harry Playe and Harry Swearingen were received as members of the club. Harry Lyons, district governor, will visit the club on Sept. 6.

Coming Of Rails Booms North City

The little community is wealthy in stock, which is one of the factors in its late development.

George De Moss Identified As Train Bandit

MARTINEZ, Aug. 16.—Dr. Geo. O. DeMoss, former army medical corps major, has been positively identified by three Los Angeles men as the purchaser of the automobile dynamited by the bandits that held up the Southern Pacific train at McAvoy on June 22.

Word of the identification was received by the sheriff's office here today from Deputy Sheriff Ralph Harrison, who is returning from Illinois where DeMoss was extradited for a San Jose robbery.

As a result of DeMoss's identification, he will be confronted by members of the train crew and passengers. While authorities do not believe that DeMoss was an actual participant in the train robbery, his identification as the owner of the car used by the bandits definitely ties him with the bandits.

Identification of DeMoss has caused authorities to double efforts to apprehend Jake Feagle in connection with the robbery.

Red, Chinese Troops Clash On Border

who returned from Manchuria after unsuccessful attempts to open negotiations with the Soviet, had conferred with officials. It is understood that a new peace effort is impending. Chinese authorities having planned to urge the Kellogg anti-war treaty powers to induce Russia to agree to an early conference.

One armed clash was reported today on the western Manchurian frontier and another on the eastern border.

A Nippon Dempo news agency dispatch from Manchuria said 700 Soviet horsemen appeared near Jarajol at 3 o'clock this morning. The dispatch said the Russian exchanged fire with Chinese troops for 90 minutes. Eight Chinese including two officers, were reported wounded.

Jarajol is about 15 miles west of Manchuria, which is on the Chinese Eastern railway near the border of Siberia.

Another dispatch to the same agency from Harbin said that 12 Russians and four Chinese soldiers were killed in a clash near Pogranichyana, on the eastern border of Manchuria.

The dispatch said the fighting occurred early this morning about 16 miles south of Pogranichyana, which also is on the Chinese Eastern railway.

A United Press dispatch from Manchuria said the Russians had massed additional forces along the border last night. The Chinese troops there reinforced their first line of defense at Commander Liang ordered patrol leaders to avoid provocations.

Partners Quarrel Over Automobile

MERCED, Aug. 16.—UP—The idea of sharing 50-50 the expenses and use of an automobile worked fine with Curtis and Charles Ver-ain of Livingston until one day Curtis wanted the car when Charles had it.

Curtis wanted it so much that he swore out a criminal complaint, charging his brother with driving the car without consent of the owner.

In court, Curtis admitted that Charles was all owner of the car. The deputy district attorney moved for dismissal on the grounds that a man cannot steal his own property.

City, County To Probe Death Of Federal Agent

PHOENIX, Aug. 16.—UP—The solution of the murder of Paul Edward Reynolds, 29 year old department of Justice agent today was placed in the hands of city and county officers by federal agents.

"We are here to assist city and county officials in running down the slayer of Reynolds," J. N. Keith national inspector of Washington, D. C., declared today. "The department of Justice is not taking away the play."

The announcement came after a conference of county, city and federal men. Clues which involve bootleggers and a house of ill-fame were checked by police today.

A house on Buckeye road, not far from where the body of Reynolds was found in an irrigation canal, was looked over by officers as the possible spot where the federal officer was shot through the heart before his body was tossed in the watery grave.

EFFICIENCY PROVES WATERLOO FOR CHAMPION DOG-CATCHER

HUNTINGTON, L. I., Aug. 16.—(UP)—Popular while working his way, but surrounded by enemies for just as he reaches for the top round of his profession—that is the experience of many a star of stage and screen and it is also the experience of James "Grab 'Em" Kehoe, the nation's dog catcher.

Kehoe has slipped the heady nectar of success and now he must taste the dregs of bitterness. Strong opposition has developed to a crowning honor prepared for him by his admirers. He may not be appointed dog-catcher for the entire county of Suffolk after all. The women are opposed to it.

Kehoe has been dog-catcher for some time. But last year was his banner year. He caught 1,700 dogs of all kinds in the four villages under his jurisdiction. This amazing total was reached, his friends will tell you, by good steady work. To catch that many dogs you have to catch five and two-thirds dogs every day, exclusive of Sundays and holidays. Miss a single day and you'll be behind. Take a two weeks vacation and you'll find a potential 62 and 2-3 dogs filed up on your desk when you get back.

No Vacation
Kehoe, as far as the local dogs could find out, never took a vacation. He is a self-made dog-catcher, having started out in a modest way as the dog catcher for a single village. He took pride in his work and soon other villages were beating a track to his pound. At present he is dog-catcher for Brookhaven, Huntington, Smithtown and Riverhead.

He was slated to be named dog-catcher for the whole county this fall, a development which his friends regarded as logical and placed before the county board of supervisors. Then, unexpectedly, the women of Washington struck. Now doubts are cast upon the advisability of having any county dog-catcher at all, let alone such a dog-catcher as Kehoe, figuring that a potential fee for each caught dog represents $9. Kehoe is accused of having made $13,000 off the 1,700 dogs he caught last year, exclusive of expenses and loss due to unclaimed dogs. Kehoe denied he made $13,000, but his enemies say he is too efficient, anyhow.

Views With Alarm
The backbone of the opposition to making him county dog catcher lies in a situation that Kehoe could never have foreseen. It is simply unfortunate, that's all. For eight years a group of women, known as the Huntington animal welfare league, have been trying to assure the establishment of an animal shelter in Huntington. Only a few weeks ago a generous contribution made possible the announcement that a beautiful dog and pet shelter could actually be built.

It is the position of Mrs. Anna M. Hunninghouse, president and spokesman for the Animal Welfare league, that if Kehoe is appointed county dog-catcher there will be no need for any animal shelter in Huntington. It is very distressing to have the animal shelter and Kehoe materialize at the same time considering the long fight of the women to get the shelter.

It looks dark for Kehoe.

MORTEMOTH KILLS MOTHS

The gas from Mortemoth crystals not only protects your furniture for a long time, but contact with it kills all moths, their eggs and their dangerous larvae in furniture which is already infested.

The proper method of using Mortemoth crystals is to tie them in small sacks, and to place these sacks down in the channel of the piece, as deeply as possible, behind the cushions, so that, upon expansion, the gas will spread and fill the spring units in the back and in the bottom of the piece.

When the sacks are empty, fill them again.

Ten Years Ahead!

A convenience many did not expect to have before 1939—natural gas for outlying residences not on the gas lines — SCHRADER and SHELLANE offer these city conveniences now!

No More Ashes
No Gasoline to Leak

No More Sooted Pans
No More Trouble Starting Fires

In the Shell oil fields there are many wells that supply great quantities of natural gas. Some of this wonderful modern fuel is run in pipelines to distant cities and distributed to homes and factories.

And now Shell is taking a continuous supply of the best part of natural gas, compressing it in steel cylinders and delivering it to the very doors of country and suburban homes.

The steel cylinders are connected for you by Shell service men. You never need to worry—they come and get the empty tanks and connect a full one whenever it is needed—at two to three months intervals. You get your bill just as you would from the city gas company, only not so often.

Actually Better Than City Gas!

You get constant pressure. No one else is using your line. And Shellane is hotter than the average city gas. You get more heat units from it. It is colorless, sootless, and clean.

How You Get It!

An attractive enameled steel cabinet is set up against the rear wall of your house or in some other inconspicuous place. In it are installed two steel cylinders of SHELLANE, from which it is piped to your gas appliances just as gas in the city is piped from underground mains.

The cabinet and fittings you buy at a very nominal cost. The cylinders we loan to you. The gas you pay for as you order it.

Order the gas stove, water heater and other appliances you want from SCHRADER'S. Just tell the SCHRADER salesman what you want; SCHRADER'S and SHELLANE will do the rest. Your fire-building drudgery is over—simply turn on the burner and touch a match.
